

FULVIC

Helps plants get the most from any brand of nutrients. Always keep some in stock!

Derived from natural organic matter found in soil, FULVIC increases the availability of substances essential to plant health. Can be used throughout the plant lifecycle, alongside all brands of nutrients or additives.

- Improves plants' uptake and transport of nutrients and maximises their effect
- Fuels rooting, growth and flowering
- Increases plants' oxygen uptake and photosynthetic rate
- Can be added to a nutrient solution or applied as a foliar spray
- Suitable for any growing media or system
